

Prophetic Word: A Downpour from Heaven Is Coming

Doug Addison [Episode 118]

March 4, 2020

Hey friends, Doug Addison here. You know, I've just done an updated video on the situation with the coronavirus. And I recorded the following Spirit Connection podcast prior to me releasing that video. So the full release on the coronavirus can be found on my website, DougAddison.com. Just go to the podcast section, or you can just do an internet search—coronavirus Doug Addison—that'll come up. It'll tell you how to pray specifically, and how to stop this horrific global attack that's going on.

Thank you very much.

Hey everybody! Doug Addison here. Welcome to Spirit Connection! It is March 4th, 2020, and we are moving forward. We're ready to march forth into what God has for you. And if you're on my website—DougAddison.com—or listening to this through any of the social media, you can actually chat in your questions. We take those seriously, even though I'm recording this at a different time. We track the questions and try to answer them from time to time. And so I'll be talking this month about the coronavirus, and I'll be also giving a prophetic word for the month of March.

And so, first of all, I just wanna say that don't be afraid about what's going on right now in the world with the coronavirus. And the enemy is trying to distract from what God wants to bring. And this is a time that we need to really press in and not be afraid because that's the plan of the enemy ... is to get you distracted, is to get you focused on something separate than what God is doing. He's releasing a time of refreshment. He's releasing the potential about a revival, and there's so many things that's about to happen. And the enemy, of course, comes with this global attack all of a sudden.

Now, we don't wanna take it lightly. I hadn't heard anything from Heaven on this until the late February, and I just started to, I don't really have a full plan and strategy yet. But I do have this much. The Lord said this is a distraction for what the enemy is trying to distract from what God wants to bring. And this is a time to press in. Do not buy into the spirit of fear. This is something that God wants to bring, which is a global revival that is coming. We're on the beginning phases of moving into that. I don't know the exact timing, but I just know that because the attack of the enemy is global and is bringing fear, that God is going to bring a global outpouring. And that's what I've been prophesying and get ready for this.

So the key to this, to get through it, is to not be afraid first of all. Psalm 91:7, "Though a thousand may fall at your side and ten thousand at your right hand, it will not come near you." So I would write that down, Psalm 91:7. I would begin to decree that. And if something does hit you, I mean, you don't have to worry. God's healing is there, and His presence is there. And so the key is to just break the spirit of fear. In fact, later on in the broadcast, I'm gonna be talking about a special event we have coming up in March to help people break through fear because it's so important right now. And so, I just wanna pray right now.

God, we pray where the global attack that's happening right now. And we pray, Lord, for the coronavirus to be stopped. And we pray for the attack of the enemy, to try to get our eyes off of what You're doing, to stop. We pray, Lord, for the solution for the full healing. We pray for the outpouring of Your Holy Spirit, in Jesus' name. Amen.

Well, you can check out last month's prophetic word because that has a lot to do with what's going on this month. And for the month of March, we're moving into this time of refreshment. And last month, the Lord told me this and then I released in February 2020, about God is opening wells of refreshment. And it was gonna start with individuals, then spread corporately. This month, the Lord spoke to me Joel 2:23. He said, "Be glad, O people of Zion. Rejoice! For the Lord your God is giving you autumn rains because He is faithful. He sends you abundant showers, both autumn and spring rains." The Lord said that that's what's coming, globally.

Now notice this. Write this down and look at it. Joel 2:23 talks about autumn and spring rains. But the Lord said this is coming right now, you know, all over the world. If you live north of the equator, you might be in spring, like we are now. Or if you live south of the equator, you could be in autumn. So the autumn and the spring rains are coming, and it's at the same time. And He's sending these abundant showers. These are things that is an outpouring of the Holy Spirit, and you can watch for God to move right now. We're gonna see things, like I always say, like you've never seen before. We're gonna see some personal refreshment in your life.

God is opening up now ... This is the word I released last month ... the opening up the wells, the living water, and it's a time of refreshment. You can get into this right now. You can get into it either personally ... I'd recommend putting on your own oxygen mask first ... getting into it personally. And then let it pour over into your community and into your life. You could actually start meetings, if you want, into what God begins to move. It's there for the taking, right now. God is gonna straighten things out right now, and He's gonna bring you into the pleasant pools of deep intimacy. And that's what I've been experiencing. Don't be distracted. So get ready for personal refreshment to those who've walked through, especially those who've walked through the time of pain, and those who've walked through the valley of tears. It's now time to dig deep and find the pleasant pools of the Lord's refreshment.

And I wanna give you a prophetic word for now. "Now" means it doesn't matter when you listen to it, it could be applicable to your life. So God is doing something right now. And as a heavenly encounter I had a while back. Actually it was from June of 2017. It was during one of the 50 days that I went into Heaven. And as I prophesy these words, I want you to open your spirit and receive this. It's so powerful! In the heavenly encounters that I had, and some of the other ones since then, they really carry a weight of Heaven upon them. And so often when I read them, or we start to edit them into writings and books, people get sleepy or they feel the weight come on you. So don't be surprised if something like that happens. It doesn't matter. It's not sleep or slumber. It's just the presence of God that's increasing right now.

Now here was the encounter. Psalm 84:5 The Passion Translation, "How rich are those who find their strength in the Lord. Within their hearts are highways of holiness." And then, in this encounter the Lord said:

"I am the Spring of Life, and you can come by Me and sit in this quiet place, and it will restore your soul. And you're coming out of that dark valley of tears. But you've dug deep into Me, and you're now striking the pools of living water. And you can come here each day. And I'm now going to be sending you a brook of blessing. And you're going to grow in deeper intimacy. It's gonna happen. You're gonna grow stronger and stronger each day."

Now Jesus said this. And He said, "Now get up and let's take a walk." And it wasn't just me. There were others in this encounter. But He said, "Let's take a walk because there's something I want to show you." And I was so overwhelmed by the Lord's presence, and I was actually weeping the entire way. And I cry ... I was crying because the road to get there had been so hard. And it had been a few times, I think I had lost my strength, and the Lord had to pick me up and actually carried me to my destination.

And this is a heavenly encounter that's going on right now. People who've been walking through this difficult time. Then I looked back and I could see that I had been walking through a dark season of a winding road that led through a dark valley of tears. And as I looked around, I could see that there were many others gathering at the entrance of the gate that was not open yet. And we all knew that this gate was about to open, and there was going to be a lot of change come for all of us. And it was the anticipation. And my strength was starting to return. Many people started to get really hopeful again.

The valley of tears has been a long and difficult process for many people. But everyone now in this encounter who had walked through the valley of tears were now sitting in pools of water. Pools of refreshment. And some of the tears were there were from the people who had wept the entire way. Now this is an encounter in Heaven. That's the end of the encounter that I'm sharing, anyway. But I wanna activate this. If you've walked through the valley of tears, if you walked through a difficult time ... Maybe you've felt like you've fallen down a few times, even. But I wanna prophesy this over you. The Lord is now bringing an end to the season of pain. He's bringing an end to the time of painful preparation. He's strengthening you right now.

So Lord, I pray that You would straighten out the road. That You would bring together these things that haven't made sense. I pray right now to strengthen what remains, is what I'm hearing. And I pray that You would open the gate.

This gate that I knew in the encounter was a gate that was moving into the new season that was the start of a global revival. But it wouldn't start all the ... you know, immediately. But there was some things that were gonna happen first. And so, that gate is coming. I tell you, I've seen it. And I wanna just pray that God opens things up for you.

I wanna give you another word of encouragement. In the places that the enemy has tried to open inroads or pathways to stop you, God is gonna open the highways of blessing and holiness. And your strength and encouragement is going to increase. The key to this, to getting through this season, is to not slow down. Do not look back. Keep taking steps forward day by day, by faith, no matter what it looks like. That's what I've had to do, and I have finally ... am getting the breakthrough. And you're about to step into a new season that was promised.

Now I got this ... I think I may have gotten this before the coronavirus ... I'm not sure where I got this word, but I'm just sayin'. This is what the enemy doesn't want you to see, is that the pools of refreshment are there. This is the time of refreshment. And God wants to bring about these things. And so it's gonna take some time to unfold, but you know what? Keep moving forward. That's what I've been doing. I've been ignoring the attacks. I've been moving forward. Ignoring the attacks. Moving forward. Because I know God's promises are here for you.

Now, I had another word to release, and that was called Supernatural Shields of Faith. Psalm 28:7, "The Lord is my strength and He is my shield. My heart trusts in Him, and He is my help. My heart leaps for joy, with my song I will praise Him." Now, this is a time in the midst of the coronavirus, in the midst of global ... You know, any kind of global economy going bad, whatever. Doesn't matter. God wants you to bring this into a time of a song of praise. Begin to worship God, and you're gonna see the opposite happen. It's gonna flip the spiritual atmosphere over you.

I saw angels bringing new shields for each person. And on the shield was written the word Faith. And as we were handed these, they wrapped around our bodies almost like armor. This was still the heavenly encounter. It might have been another one. But it was almost like the Iron Man movie. But there was like liquid glory and protection that was coming to come and help you during this time. In the areas that Satan has over-played his hand, has over-played his attacks against you, the Lord is now moving to bring restoration to you. And justice and repayment for your suffering and losses is now here.

Another word I had for the month of March is to look back 7 years ago because, you know, we've been in a 7-year time of preparation. Jeremiah 34:14, "Every seventh year, you must free a fellow Hebrew.” The Lord gave me that word as ... because this is after 7 years ... Go back to 2013 and take a look over the last 7 years. God has been using this time of preparation. And this month starts the time of being released from the chains of the past. You know, there’s times when people have felt like, that you know ... I know a lot of people, myself included, have felt like, “Wow, I don’t know if I can keep going on, Lord!”

And so this is what’s going on right now. Isaiah 61:1, “He sent me to bind up the broken-hearted, to claim freedom for the captives and release from darkness those who are prisoners.” The Lord is moving right now in your life to bring these things about. No matter how difficult it’s been, He’s gonna help you to overcome these things. And I saw chains falling off, and I saw discouragement literally falling off people. Fell off of me in the midst of getting these words. And many who have struggled with addictions, who’ve gone through a difficult time of not being able to get free from the past, I tell you, it’s coming now. There’s some power coming in this season.

God’s gonna give you a sign of confirmation that He’s with you, or that what He’s talking about right now. Watch this in the month of March and as we move into April. Jeremiah 31:21, “Set up road signs. Put up guideposts. Take note of the highway, the road you should take.” The Lord is going to give you signs of confirmation ... is that what He’s calling you to right now. So watch for these. It will be both a natural and supernatural forms. God’s gonna speak through signs, literally. And there, you know ... up on billboards, songs, art ... They’re all types of thing, movies, TVs. Right now watch for God to speak through just about any and everything. And watch as He opens up the heavens over you. This is a powerful word this month.

So Lord, we pray that You activate this word. We pray that You would open up the heavens. Bring about the things, the release and freedom from the things of the past. I pray, Lord, that You would activate the signs. Activate the ability to hear the voice of the Holy Spirit. I pray for angels to be dispatched. I pray for the shields of faith to come right now in Jesus’ name. Amen.

Well, it’s an exciting word, and I know that God is gonna do some things right now to encourage you. So press in. Now, again, I’m a “signs” prophetic person. That means that I experience very similar to Ezekiel 24:24. Said what happens to Ezekiel was a sign to the people. And that’s similar to my gift is that what happens to me, I experience these things. I live them out. They’re signs.

And so, I’ve been living this out myself. I’m shifting ... You notice my background’s even different because I’m in an office. And even just two months ago, it was impossible for me to be in. And this is a time now to re- ... I would just say realign. It’s only two miles from where I live! Just I realigned two miles, and suddenly the heavens opened. And the Lord had spoken to me already couple years ago about this place I needed to be in. And so, I just took the prophetic words He’d been giving me. I just stepped up and began to say, you know, I’m just gonna move into this. And as I did, doors opened. And as I did, my goodness, there’s things that started to happen that I have ... I’ve only dreamed about recently. And I’m still battling through some stuff, but I want to say this.

You don't have to move. You don't have to do anything. I just realigned two miles, and suddenly I could hear way more clearly. I'm suddenly getting greater favor. And there's new things happening. This is all in the last six weeks.

So I wanna prophesy over you that God wants to bring about these changes in your life. And it might be a realignment to get to a ... And it doesn't mean you have to move, but maybe some people will. It might be with different people. Might be, you know, different places. But just to watch for these things. And as God is moving, just be open to doing something new. And that's what I'll be talking about this month, is because of these pleasant pools of refreshment He wants to bring. This is definitely the time to listen to the Lord and to be encouraged. Do not back down. Keep moving forward. God wants to bless you in this season. And He's gonna open the heavens over you right now.

All right! Well, DougAddison.com is my website. Follow me on Facebook (theDougAddison), Twitter and Instagram (DougTAddison). And also, you can get my Daily Prophetic Word (#dailyprophetic). Been doing those, wow, for a very long time. If you haven't got 'em, you can get 'em delivered to your email box as well. Just go to my website and click on Daily Prophetic.

And also, I have a new app! The Doug Addison App. You haven't gotten ahold of it yet, it's in the App Store or the Google Play where you can get the Daily Prophetic delivered. You can have it pop up, or you can see all the videos that I'm doing because I do this show weekly. This is a weekly show now, Spirit Connection, which started years ago because of a prophetic word that Bob Jones gave me. And here we are years later, over 10 years later, doing the show still. And this is now moving into the new season of 2020. And God is giving new vision right now.

I'm excited about something coming, and I'm gonna be offering ... I said this ... offering an Overcoming Fear Master Class: How to Live a Life Fearlessly. And it's gonna be March 21st ... write it down ... March 21st at 10 a.m. It's a free online training, and it's a free master class, but you have to sign up. And guess what? Oh my goodness, it will sell out. We're limited to right around a thousand, I believe. And definitely, you'll wanna sign up right away. Go to DougAddison.com/Overcome. And I'm gonna be talking about how to overcome the spirit of fear because that's what's holding people down. That was a key to my healing of Lyme disease and different things that had happened to me. And so, the spirit of fear is what's causing people to get derailed from their destiny. So watch for that to come, and that's gonna be a lot of fun, actually.

And also, I just released something that you'll be excited about. I'm excited about it. It's called the Hearing the Voice of God 365 Audio Course. Now I released a full school couple years ago, maybe you knew, maybe you've even taken it. Or maybe you wanted to, but you couldn't afford it because it was a 12-month school. But it was totally online, and it was how to really to be trained on how to learn to discern the voice of the Lord. And full ministry school. And I'm now releasing it out as a download of the audios. This is the audios only, not the workbooks or anything like that.

But it contains 36 mp3 audio teachings. In other words, 12 90-minute sessions just like I did it on each area that I know that I needed a long time ago. How to learn to discern. Dreams and visions. Experiencing the supernatural. How to know when it's God, yourself or the enemy. How to know if it's an angel or even the Holy Spirit speaking to you. And a full ministry course. But again, if you've taken the full ministry course, this is the audios only. In other words, with the Hearing the Voice of God 365 school, you get the activations, the workbook and the interaction with our team and our coach, and everything like that.

But if you wanna just get this into your life, or a gift to someone else, DougAddison.com/HGaudio—that's for Hearing God—HGaudio. Check it out because it's gonna be a powerful, powerful life-changer for many people. If you sit in traffic, or maybe you always wanted to go to a ministry school, or maybe you wanted to take Hearing God 365 and you didn't have the money, this is a time now to at least get this into your spirit. Get it into your repertoire of teachings and things. It's very powerful.

So, remember too that you can give to us. We appreciate that because of what we do. We reach millions of people, wow, over 160 countries now on the internet. We've been reaching millions through all different types of media. And we value people who want to partner with us. And if you partner, that means that you give on a regular basis. Just go to DougAddison.com/Give. And partners actually get to be part of a monthly mentoring call that I do. I just did one last night, and I do one once a month for the partners and the students.

You can also text the word L-O-V-E to 45888 if you wanna give. L-O-V-E to 45888. Or the app. We have all kinds of different ways. But I wanna encourage you to do that because it helps us to do what we do as far as, you know, reaching the world and in Hollywood here. We're seeing some amazing things happen in Hollywood. And we've had a producer, major producer, come to the Lord just recently. So behind the scenes, some prophecy and different things have been going on.

I'm gonna be at a live event. I've got two of them coming in April. Maybe you wanna write it down because it's gonna be really fun ... April 3rd and 4th in Cranford, New Jersey. It's with Paulette Polo, myself and my good friend, Larry Randolph. We haven't been together, I tell you, we have not spoken at a conference together in a very long time. In fact, we started there with Paulette, myself and Larry and some others back in 2003 when he just first started to come on the scene with InLight Connection. And so it's gonna be a blast there. Write that down.

If you're on the other coast, April 13th through the 16th is the Global Harvest 2020: Vision of the Harvest. It's with Ché Ahn. H.I.M, Harvest International Ministries. That's who I'm part of. And so that's gonna be ... the conference is April 13th and 14th. I'll be one of the speakers as far as the panelists. Ché Ahn, Cindy Jacobs, Mark Chironna, you name it. We've got Michael Brown and lots of people are gonna be there. And just go to DougAddison.com/Events to find out anything more about these.

So I'm gonna move in right now to some Q&A because we get some amazing questions that come in. And we don't always have time to answer them, but I try to take time with these. Now here's some of the FAQs, the Frequently Asked Questions, that I've been getting.

First of all, one of them is: I've heard a lot of talk about the spiritual wells, and the refreshment coming and opening up. But it sounds like it's revisiting the Toronto Blessing meetings of the 90s. Is that what we can expect? Or is there something different coming?

Well yeah, it's actually similar to that in the sense of, you know, the wells of refreshment. But it's not limited to that at all. It doesn't mean you have to have a renewal meeting to be part of this. This is a time where God is moving, and He's bringing personal refreshment. It might look like that. It doesn't have to be a repeated meeting. It could be, I'm saying right now, I saw these pools of refreshment opening. These wells of refreshment opening over churches, home groups.

You know, that's how we started InLight Connection. Back in 2001, Bob Jones' video got in my hands. It was a prophet, Bob Jones, who's now in Heaven. But I got it in my hands, and the Lord had me go around ... Linda and I, we were going around and showing it in people's homes. And when we did, it was like a meeting ... a renewal meeting broke out, even. There was a presence of God would come in, and so that's what it reminded me of. We started our ministry to fulfill the words of Bob Jones from these small meetings, and then they grew and grew and grew, and then we finally launched InLight Connection.

So there's things that could happen like that. There's no limit to what God can do because God is limitless. So don't put Him in a box.

So, here's another question: I can identify with the prophetic words that you're talking about, about the valley of tears. And so, I used to cry a lot and, but I'm sorry to say that I think I've ran out of tears. Is this okay? I don't know if I can weep anymore. And also, is weeping like fasting? Does it open up things?

Great question, first of all. I tell you, I cried ... I went through the season where I was crying and weeping, first of all, over the harvest. Over the things that I saw in Heaven over the revival. In 2017, even before that, I was a weeping prophet. And then, I walked through a time of weeping when I walked through the pruning that I had to get here. You know, we've been in a time like John 15. Jesus said, "I'm the vine, and you're the branches. And the Father prunes." He's been pruning us to get us ready. He's been taking away the things ... I cried during that time when the issues of my soul came up. Then I cried other times, you know, I wept and wept and wept, and you know what? About a year ago, maybe even this year, I finally started coming out of the valley of tears.

And what I read, I want you to listen to this encounter one more time, that I just did. Where I was walking through the valley of tears with others, and it was a strength that came. And this is the time right now that it doesn't matter if you cry or not. It does not matter. It's that God wants to now take that time of your past. He wants to take those seasons and bring you into a time of repayment.

And I guess the question also was, "Is weeping like fasting?" Yeah, in a sense it can be. You know, fasting can help break the things of your soul. And so can weeping. But what I was seeing is that many people even had the gift of travail. Travail came upon them during this past season. And the intercessors would travail before the Lord. So weeping and fasting are actually very similar. Don't worry if you can't weep anymore. This is the season that you're coming out of, where He's gonna bring you into the new things of God. And it's gonna be an exciting time.

All right. Here's another question: I feel frustrated for not having enough time or energy to do the things that are in my dreams because I'm so busy. I'm working at my job, and I'm taking care of my family. How can I make sure that I don't miss out on the plans God has for me?

Great question because this shows what season you're in right now. And I walked through that. I tell ya, I was trying to get out of my, you know, my corporate job. I was starting a business. I was getting ministry training in the midst of it. I was walking through all this stuff. I barely had time to do anything. And so, your season right now seems to be that you are working right now and taking care of your family. So that's a good thing, right? But here's what I wanna encourage you, is find some time, even if it's just five minutes towards what it is that God's calling you to. Even if it's a few minutes.

I actually asked the Lord ... Here's what I did. Because I run a ministry, you know, I try to do the things, all the things that He's called me to do. And be a father and a grandfather and a parent and all those things. And here's what happened, is I began to ask the Lord to show me how I could actually fit in an extra time. And He did! He showed me how I could get 30 minutes here, and I started using that 30 minutes towards pulling together some things for writing because I've been trying to write a new book. And now, I just started with just 30 minutes. That's how I started. And now, it shifted to where I'm actually now able to very soon be working on that book that'll be coming out like next year, as well. And I'm just sayin' ... ask the Lord to show you, and He will do that.

So Lord, we thank You for Your goodness. We thank You for all that You're doing this month. I pray right now that You would open up the heavens over each of us. I pray that You would turn that valley of tears into the place of blessing, in Jesus' name. Amen.
