

The Lord Is Moving
Doug Addison [Episode 281]
April 19, 2023

Hey everybody, Doug Addison here. It's April 19th, 2023, and the Lord is moving. You know, it's a time to press into the true Jesus for all you need. Psalm 27:14, "Wait on the Lord and be strong. Take heart and wait on the Lord."

You know, it's time to wait on the Lord, to take time to pray. It's time to rest. It's time also to battle in prayer as the Lord leads you. This truly is a time of change for the good. You can use Bible verses; you can pray in agreement with the Lord and with others. And I have a Prayer Kit that's going to help you, I'll talk about here in a minute.

But for sure, the Lord is moving right now. And I want to encourage you, in fact, I want to repeat last week's podcast. It was so powerful. It's a short podcast. We're going to repeat it right now in this episode, and there's a prayer at the end. And I tell you, there's a time right now to get a breakthrough in prayer and to move closer with the Lord.

So, as well, consider this. Go to DougAddison.com/Give, and please consider giving in to what we're doing right now.

Also, DougAddison.com/PrayerKit. And this has—, it's actually too much for me to even talk about, but it has some of my previous training that the Lord is moving on right now, so please go to DougAddison.com/PrayerKit. Take a look at it.

But right now, I want to just take you right into the last week's episode and for you to pray the prayers here. The Lord is moving right now. God bless you ...

Hey friends, Doug Addison here. Spirit Connection podcast. It is April 12th, 2023. We just celebrated Resurrection Sunday, and I'll tell you, it was a fun time.

And right now, I'm just taking some time of peace. So therefore, you're seeing—right now—a reality version of Spirit Connection, you know, lighting and everything. But don't worry about it.

The Lord's moving right now. [chuckles] And what I got from last weekend is: Resurrection Sunday was actually Restoration Sunday. It was a time of restoration, and I wrote down some notes here. Resurrection Sunday was a Restoration Sunday. The Lord is now restoring us and bringing breakthrough.

You know that many of us have entered into a time of in which the Lord is going to restore us. But also, a lot of us have walked through a time, you know, of trouble, turmoil. Many of us have been battling, trying to get through. And others, you know, just —, maybe you've already gotten your breakthrough. Praise God. But I just felt the Lord say that breakthrough is here.

And I released this word last week on my podcast. I felt the same type of thing going on right now, which is the plans and the purposes. Psalm 33:11, "But the plans of the Lord stand firm forever, the purposes of his heart through all generations." You know, it might not be quite clear yet, but the Lord is releasing His plans.

Also from last week's podcast, I brought it out again, is Psalm 34:7, "The angel of the Lord encamps around those who fear him, and he delivers them." Wow. How good is that? I've been seeing angels. There's more angels here with you.

There's some powerful things happening. And then the other verse that I used last week—I want to bring it back again—is Psalm 35:1, because the Lord is contending for you. And the Lord says in Psalm 35:1, "I will contend for those who contend with me; and I will fight against those who fight against me."

The Lord is moving right now. But what He's calling us to do is to speak "peace, be still" to our storms and also to not give up, just to stand and watch the Lord move.

Well, here's another thing. Each week I do this is—, this week I'm calling this ... is that Resurrection Sunday was actually restoration time. So, it's a time—, I'm calling this podcast "Restoration Is Here" and the Lord is moving right now. And each week I do this little teaching. This one will be less formal, but it's the same type of thing.

Whenever you begin to move towards needing a breakthrough—, breakthrough is here. But what you want to do is repent, renounce and break for anything you might have "in common" with whatever God's doing. This will clear things out.

So, Lord, right now, even with this message, I repent, renounce and break anything that I may have had in common. Maybe there's some generational curses. Maybe there's soul ties. Maybe there's things that go all the way back or there are things that I've done or those that I've been part of that—, knowingly or unknowingly, or maybe there's some unforgiveness that's going on.

So, Lord, I just pray right now that You would clear things out and if there's any unforgiveness, I would pray that You would show—, show me and others, Lord, if there's anyone that I need to forgive, or maybe if I've done anything to anybody, I just ask forgiveness.

It's just so good to clear things out.

And so, this week it's not quite as formal. Each week, I've been doing this at the end of each podcast ... you can see it last week too, and the last few weeks. But I've kind of been doing a brief overview of "repent, renounce and break anything we have in common."

Lord, we pray that You would bring the breakthrough that we all need, and we pray that You would clear out the things that have been holding us back, in the name of the true Jesus. Amen.

Well, if you could please consider giving. Right now, we're in a—, we have a financial need. And so, if you go to DougAddison.com/Give, there's some places you can give there or may even become a Partner with us where you give every month. That would be really nice as well.

And so, you know, my website is DougAddison.com and I'm just really grateful for all the Lord is doing right now.

God bless you all!
