

Restoration of Hope
Doug Addison [Episode 284]
May 10, 2023

Hey everybody, Doug Addison here. Welcome to Spirit Connection podcast. It's May 10, 2023, and I've got a message for you this week called "Restoration of Hope." This week, you know, I have an encouraging message and some Bible verses that you can pray, and I'll also be talking about some training resources.

You know, last week I released an episode called "How to Pray for May" with five strategic Bible verses that you can pray and decree over your life.

And this week, I want to continue in that theme of prayer on decreeing Bible verses. So, go to my website DougAddison.com for more information about our ministry. But let's jump right in.

Oh, oh, the true Jesus, we are so grateful! We are just in awe of Your goodness. We ask You would now open up things for us to be able to receive from You directly. We just ask for the clearing out of the realms that need to be cleared out. We pray for the encouragement and the hope to be restored, in the name of the true Jesus. Amen.

You know, I just got back from a month-long time of prayer, fasting, healing and restoration. So, thank you so much for praying for all of us and bearing with us through this time. I've had to cancel some things and make some changes. But this week, I'm back. But also, hey, my hair's in transition and all things are being renewed right now.

But the Lord, I tell you, the Lord is doing a deep work in us. He's healing. He's preparing us for what's ahead. And the Lord is restoring hope. The Lord is restoring hope. The Lord is restoring hope. Psalm 33:18, "But the eyes of the Lord are on those who fear him, and those whose hope is in his unfailing love." You know, the Lord is watching over us and He's removing the things that are holding us back from getting our breakthrough. The Lord is restoring His unfailing love and hope for us.

The key is to wait on the Lord and stay in hope. Psalm 33:20, "We wait in hope for the Lord; and he is our help and our shield." You know, we need ... we just need this right now. We need to be encouraged because we're in a time of transition and we are waiting on the Lord. He's bringing deeper healing to us all and He's shielding us by the Holy Spirit. He's shielding us through the warring angels, the helper angels that are here. They're actually being assigned daily.

The Lord is also renewing His unfailing love for us. The Lord loves you—, you know, His love for us—it will never forsake. He said this in His word that He will never leave you or forsake us. He will never forsake us. And He's revealing His heart of love for us right now. And He's bringing renewal.

Psalm 33:22, "May your unfailing love be with us, Lord, even as we put our hope in you." Psalm 33:22. I think it's worth repeating, "May your unfailing love be with us, Lord, even as we put our hope in you." Why not a third time? Let's just go for it. Let's just—, come on. Psalm 33:22, "May your unfailing love for us, Lord, even as we put our hope in you."

Whoo It's a powerful time right now. So, this is a time to be encouraged. Step up into this: worship, joy—stay in hope and do not give up. There's power in worshiping the Lord, singing, praying in the Spirit. This will lift you up right now. This is going to renew your strength as well.

You know, last week's episode I talked about the five Bible verses. Well, that covers this in more detail. So go back and watch that if you haven't heard it yet. Or it's also in written form. But especially the power of the Lord's love, the power of singing and the power of praising the Lord right now. Be encouraged and don't give up.

Lord, we want to come into agreement with Your word and those whose hope is in You that says this: that Your word says those whose hope in You and Your unfailing love will be protected. And that those who wait in hope for the Lord will be a shield around us.

So right now, we just come into agreement for Your unfailing love, for Your hope. We come into agreement right now. We ask You to renew our strength. We ask that You would make things clear to us. Renew all things and make things clear, in the name of the true Jesus. Amen.

You know, I've been teaching on this each week, and this week as well is—, it's a key to everything right now—how to get a breakthrough. In my teachings I've been doing, it's important that you consider this. I do it. And it really has been helping me. And so, I'm going to go through and walk you through this process that I use.

First of all, find the Bible verses. I've given you some that you need that can back up things that, you know, that you need. The Bible verses that pray in the promises. You can do that through prayer. You can do it through singing, rejoicing, pray it in ... in different ways.

Also, singing in the Spirit, agree with others and go deeper with this right now. Do the deeper level of repentance of anything that you might have “in common” with this, known or unknown.

You know, the Lord is moving, He’s blessing us. But it’s important to add worship, fun and joy to all of this. And we just want to—, think about it right now, if there’s something that you need. You know, our needs, we still have the financial need. You know, personally, our ministry, we just have a financial need right now. And so, we want to come into agreement with that. We want to come into agreement for the healing that we all need, the restoration.

And so, what do you need specifically? So, go through some Bible verses. We want to remove the strongholds over gridlock, jam-ups, delays. We’ve got that going on.

So, we repent, renounce and break anything that we might have in common. I repent, renounce and break anything I might have in common, including generational—soul ties all the way back, curses, things that—, knowingly or unknowingly ...

Also, we want to come into agreement in prayer to break off things that are holding us back. And one of the big ones could be unforgiveness. So, we want to forgive and break off the spirit of unforgiveness. And you know, unforgiveness is important, but we don’t have to agree with the person who hurt us or the people, you know, you don’t necessarily have to contact them. But the key is to forgive people.

So, Lord, we ask right now forgiveness. I ask for forgiveness if I’ve done anything, if I hurt anybody, if I’ve come into agreement with anything, knowingly or unknowingly, against this message, or that would stop us from getting to breaking us out of the old season and into the new.

Also, I ask forgiveness if—, for financial ... anything that's financial, you know, any kind of hurting people, misuse of anything, gifts, misuse of any and all things. We just want to repent, renounce and break over this anything, known or unknown. And so, Lord, we ask now that You would flush things out, seen or unseen, and bring us into the true light of the true Jesus, in the name of the true Jesus. Amen.
